TW 3284

| CERTIFICATE OF MAILING BY FIRST CLASS MAIL (37 CFR 1.8) Applicant(s): Edward J. A. Pope                   |                                   |                              | Docket No. POPE#5(CIP) |
|---|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------|
| Serial No.09/965,683  | Filing DateSeptember 21, 2001 | ExaminerLeon Yun Bon Lum | Group Art Unit3284 |
| Invention: Integrated e   | lectro-luminescent biochip        |                              |                        |
| OCT 1 4 2005  |                                   |                              |                        |
| I hereby certify that this listing of claims (Identify type of correspondence)                     |                                   |                              |                        |
| is being deposited with the United States Postal Service as first class mail in an envelope addressed to: |                                   |                              |                        |
| Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, VA 22313-1450 on                                     |                                   |                              | October 7, 2005 (Date) |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
| ·   |                                   |                              |                        |
| W. Edward Johansen (Typed or Printed Name of Person Mailing Correspondence)                               |                                   |                              |                        |
| Wood Jo   |                                   |                              |                        |
| (Signature of Person Mailing Correspondence)  |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
| ·   |                                   |                              | •                      |
| Note: Each paper must have its own certificate of mailing.  |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |
|   |                                   |                              |                        |